Isaak Loewen * 1759(?)

Dr. Unruh records in his book under a revised list as of Oct. 27, 1808, an Isaak Loewen, being 49 years old. He arrived in the Lindenau colony of the Molotschna, S. Russia, on Oct. 20, 1805, from Elbing, Prussia, with his wife Ewa, who was 48 yrs., which would make the year of her birth about 1760, and 2 sons, Isaac 21 yrs. old (in 1808) and Jacob 5 years old. He was a cabinet maker and owned the following property after having lived in Lindenau for 3 years: 1 wagon, half a plow, 1 harrow, 5 horses, 7 cows, 150 tschetwert grain (800 bushels), in unthreshed shocks or bundles, 13 loads of hay.

My father had the information that Isaac Loewen migrated from the Danzig area of Prussia to Russia in the year 1804 and that he settled in the village of Lindenau, Molotschna. His son Isaac was 17 years old at the time of the migration. Otherwise nothing is known of his family, when he got married or when he died, nor of his son Jacob.
