Kleine Gemeinde Heidebrechts

Section One: Peter Heidebrecht-Stammvater

2 The most prominent Heidebrecht family in the Kleine Gemeinde of the Molotschna Colony, South Russia, was that of Peter Heidebrecht whose son Peter (1815-1896) settled in Jansen, Nebraska, in 1874. The information as to the children of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. has been obtained from a letter of April 5, 1911 in the Mennonitische Rundschau written by Peter Rogalsky the ^{grand}son of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. This letter was discovered through the research of Steinbach historian and teacher, Henry Fast. It is not possible to rank the children according to age as only the birth date of son Peter is known at this time.

3 Daughter Maria Heidebrecht married Paul Rogalsky. In 1911 their son Peter Rogalsky was resident in Mewrik, Russia, from where he wrote the letter to the Rundschau on which much of this section is based.

3 The Gerhard Heidebrecht family was resident in Lichtenau, Molotschna, in 1876. His letter of February 26, 1876, to his former neighbour Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1816-1894), who had emigrated to Steinbach, Manitoba, in 1875, is still extant. According to the letter above referred to, Mrs Gerhard Heidebrecht was still alive in 1911. It is also indicated that son Peter Heidebrecht was resident in Lindenport and son Gerhard Heidebrecht in Pretoria.

3 Son Peter Heidebrecht married Aganetha Fast in 1846 in Plumstein. In 1868 they moved to Markuslandt near Einlage but after one year they moved on to Borosenko where they purchased 400 desjatien of land. In 1874 they emigrated to Jansen, Nebraska. Like most other Heidebrechts associated with the Kleine Gemeinde they were quite well-to do. The Peter Heidebrechts remained in the Kleine Gemeinde church all their lives. Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) was a cousin to Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf, Molotschna.

Son-in-law Johan P. Thiessen was a successful businessman and Nebraska State Senator. Son-in-law Abraham F. Thiessen was the famous advocate of the landless Mennonites in the Molotschna Colony, South Russia. For additional information see: Henry Fast, "The Kleine Gemeinde in the United States of America" Published in Profile of the Kleine Gemeinde 1874, (Steinbach, Manitoba, 1987), pages 87-140. The list of children is not necessarily complete.

Section Two: Family and Siblings of Cornelius Heidebrecht, Nikolaidorf, Molotschna.

2 Unfortunately the name of Stammvater Heidebrecht the father of Cornelius Heidebrecht who lived in Nikolaidorf, Molotschau, during the 1880s is not known at the present time. The writer would very much appreciate hearing from any reader with further information in this regard.

3 Son Cornelius Heidebrecht married Susanna who may have been his second wife. A number of letters written by Cornelius and Susana Heidebrecht to Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1816-1894) former school-teacher in Lichtenau, Molotschna, are still extant. According to a letter of April 25, 1878, the family had nine children. Another letter refers to four children and four step-children. One of the step-daughters was married to Jakob Bergman/Barkman who had a son Cornelius born 1869, a very large person, and a daughter Elizabeth born 1892.

Son-in-law Franz Klassen lived on the Brazel Settlement in Russia. According to a letter of May 16, 1884, son Cornelius had ten children three of whom were married by 1887. Grandson Cornelius Heidebrecht, born 1859, married Maria Willms daughter of the Gerhard Willms of Nikolaidorf. Margaretha Heidebrecht, daughter of Peter, married Heirich Fleming a widower born in 1831 who already had children and a Wirtschaft. Her sister married Heinrich Hildebrand, son of Heinrich Hildbrand of Muensterberg. Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba, has reported that Cornelius Heidebrecht was a cousin of Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) of Jansen, Nebraska.

This connection is established by a letter of Cornelius Heidebrecht, Nikolaidorf, to Gerhard S. Kornelsen, in which he refers to one of their sons Cornelius Friesen as his nephew. JAKOB HEIDEBRECHT GENEALOGY

216

Section One: Stammvater Jakob Heidebrecht

According to the research of genealogist Hermann Thiessen of West Germany, all the Heidebrechts emigrating from Prussia to the Molotschna Colony, South Russia, in 1804, were descended from Peter Heidebrecht who died in West Prussia in 1770. He was married twice, the name of his first wife being unknown. The second wife of Peter Heidebrecht was the widow Catharina Fast who died on November 11, 1777. Mr Thiessen has written that the heirs of Peter Heidebrecht were as follows: 1) Abraham, 2) Peter married to Anna Fast, 3) Johan married to Agneta Wiebe, 4) Agneta married to Peter Wiebe, and 5) Jakob.¹

Gen	Name	Birth	Marriage	Death
1	Peter Heidebrecht			1770

2	Abraham Heidebrecht			Before 1775
2	Peter Heidebrecht
2	Johan Heidebrecht
2	Agneta Heidebrecht
2	Jakob Heidebrecht

The major line of Kleine Gemeinde Heidebrechts are descended from son Jakob.² According to the research of Hermann Thiessen, Jakob was married to Catharina Fast and lived in Krebsfelde, Prussia.³ The Kassinations-Liste of 1775 lists only one Jakob Heidebrecht who is resident in Krebsfelde married with three sons, a freeholding farmer, of only moderate means. Jakob Heidebrecht must have died sometime prior to 1803 as he is not listed in the emigration records of that year.⁴

The widow Jakob Heidebrecht, nee Catharina Fast, emigrated to the Molotschna Colony in 1803 together with her sons Jakob, Cornelius (listed as a servant with David Epp), and Peter, and twin daughters Agatha and Katharina.⁵ It appears that she settled on Wirtschaft No 4 in the village of Lichtensau where her sons Peter and Cornelius and daughter Agatha are living in 1806. From this one would also conclude that the widow Jakob Heidebrecht had died sometime before 1803. The eldest son Jakob Heidebrecht was living on Wirtschaft No 3 next door. No further information is presently available regarding daughter Katharina Heidebrecht or whether she ever married and had a family.

It is believed that the widow Jakob Heidebrecht, nee Catharina Fast was one of the early supporters of the Kleine Gemeinde as the families of two of her children were prominently involved in the movement. It is also possible that she was related to one or more of the several Fast families associated with the reform movement. Other Kleine Gemeinde families and sympathizers in Lichtenau in 1808 included the following: Abraham Kornelsen and Agatha Schellenberg Wirtschaft No. 6;5 Abraham Isaac and Catharina Andreas Wirtschaft No. 14;7 and Barend Fast and Saara Harms Wirtschaft No 20.8

Section Two: Jakob Heidebrecht Family

The oldest son Jakob Heidebrecht was baptised in 1795.9 At the time of the emigration he was listed as a miller. Jakob Heidebrecht was married to Agatha Andreas and resident in Krebsfelde. In 1808 they emigrated to Russia settling on Wirtschaft No.3 next door to his mother. According to the Revisions-liste the family owned the following property in 1809: 1 wagon, 1 plow, 2 harrows, 5 horses, and 9 cattle. Hermann Thiessen has listed a son Peter born in 1802 who may have died in infancy as no children are listed by E.Unruh. No further information is presently available regarding the family of Jakob Heidebrecht

Section Three: Agatha Heidebrecht

Daughter Agatha Heidebrecht married her first cousin Johan Heidebrecht the son of Johan Heidebrecht of Crattkeu, West Prussia. Her husband was a widower who had been married for the first time to Agatha born 1773 whose maiden name is not recorded. Johan Heidebrecht and his first wife emigrated to Russia in 1800 settling in the village of Lichtenau, Melotcheno, on Wirtschaft No. 2 next door to his future brother-in-law. At the time of the Revisionsliste in 1808 the family had the following property: 1 wagon, 1 plow, 4 horses, and 6 cattle, with children Peter 12, Maria @ Berend 2 and Anna 1/2. Johan Heidebrechts' first wife died on January 3, 1813 and on February 20, 1813, he married his cousin Agatha Heidebrecht. Nothing further is known about the family at this time.

Section Four: Cornelius Heidebrecht Family.

3 According to B.H. Ulrich son Cornelius Heidebrecht was linen weaver from Krebsfeld, Prussia. He was still single at the time of the emigration to Russia in 1803 and was listed as a servant with David Epp, in Malbetadt, Molotschna. He married some time after 1803 to Margaretha whose first name is not known. In 1808 the young couple was resident on Wirtschaft No. 4 in Lichtenau which they seem to have recently purchased from his mother or her estate as his sister Agatha and brother Peter and his family are living with them. At this time Cornelius Heidebrecht is listed as owning the following property: 1 wagon, 3 horses, and 3 cattle. They also have a baby boy Cornelius who is six months old.

4 Son Cornelius Heidebrecht was a prosperous Holländ resident in Nikolaidorf, Molotschna, founded in 1851. He was married to Susanna who may have been his second wife. A number of letters written by Cornelius and Susana Heidebrecht to Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1815-1894) in Lichtenau near Steinbach, Manitoba, are still extant. 10 Cornelius Heidebrecht born 1808 (later of Nikolaidorf) and Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1815-1896) evidently were well known to each other from their childhood days in Lichtenau where they grew up only two doors away from each other and where Kornelsen later served for several decades as the village teacher which explains why they later corresponded in their retirement years. Given the fact that Cornelius Heidebrechts' second wife was born in 1805 and his statement in a letter of 1887 that he is getting senile it is logical to assume that he is the young Cornelius born to Cornelius Heidebrechts in Lichtenau in 1808. 11 Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba, has reported that Cornelius Heidebrecht was a cousin of Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) of Jansen, Nebraska. 12

According to a letter of April 25, 1878, the Cornelius Heidebrecht family had nine children. Another letter refers to four children and four step-children. One of the step-daughters was married to Jakob Bergman/Barkman who had a son Cornelius born 1869, a very large person, and a daughter Elizabeth born 1862. Cornelius Heidebrecht had four of his own children, a daughter married to Franz Klassen who lived on the Brazel Settlement in Russia, and three sons Cornelius, Johan and Peter.

According to a letter of March 29, 1887, son Cornelius had two children three of whom were married.13 Grandson Cornelius Heidebrecht, born 1859, married Maria Wilms daughter of th Gerhard Wilms of Nikolaidorf. By 1887 Cornelius Heidebrecht born 1808 had 27 grandchildren, but son Johan Heidebrecht married rather late at the age of 33 so that his father believed that this number could still increase quite substantially.

Son Peter Heidebrecht (born 1842) was resident in Nikolaidorf. Two of his daughters got married in the winter of 1886/1887 namely, Margaretha married Heinrich Fleming a widower born in 1831 who already had children and a Wittschaff, and Maria married Heinrich Hildebrand, son of Heinrich Hildebrand of Muensterberg. Apparently Peter Heidebrecht (born 1842) also had a son Diedrich Heidebrecht who was married to Helena Ediger.14

4 Daughter Heidebrecht was married to widower Johan Friesen (1789-1840), Orloff, Melotschna, and had five children with him. This connection is established by a letter of May 7, 1881, by Cornelius Heidebrecht, Nikolaidorf, to Gerhard S. Kornelsen, in which he refers to one of their sons Cornelius Friesen as his nephew.15 Given the age of her husband and her oldest son Cornelius her birth year would have to be 1814 or earlier. Since she had a sister Mrs Wiens born in 1815, it is logical to assume that she is the daughter Catarina born to Cornelius Heidebrecht of Lichtenau on November 9, 1812. Son Cornelius M. Friesen was living in Lichtfelde, Melotschna, in 1875, from where he emigrated to Rosanort, Manitoba.

4 Daughter Heidebrecht married Jakob Heidebrecht and lived in the Brasel settlement. According to a letter of Cornelius Heidebrecht of March 29, 1887, both his sisters the widow Wiena and Heidebrecht were already sickly. The Jakob Heidebrecht family was in no good financially. A letter by Johan Rogalsky in the Gerhard S. Kornelsen Collection refers to the death of a Mrs Jakob Heidebrecht in January of 1890. The family had only one son, Peter Heidebrecht who had three sons and one daughter. The daughter died a tragic death by drowning in 1887. In a letter of May 16, 1884, Cornelius Heidebrecht describes this incident as follows: "They have a stream approximately 10 rods "rothen" from their dwelling house. A board walk leads over this stream to their beautiful garden. The little girl apparently wanted to go to the garden but fell from the bridge unnoticed and drowned. A great tragedy for the grandparents as well as the parents. I think that they will not find comfort without Gods help." A letter by Johan Rogalsky to Gerhard S. Kornelsen refers to the death of a Mrs. Jakob Heidebrecht in January of 1890.

Additional information regarding the Jakob Heidebrecht family is found in the book Descendants of Cornelius Friesen by Rudy Friesen from which the balance of this section is taken.¹⁶ They lived at the west end of Brasel Row with their only son Peter. In 1876 son Peter married Susanna Friesen the daughter of Cornelius von Reison/Friesson who had immigrated to Russia in 1829 settling in the village of Altshau. In 1868 Cornelius Friesen was one of the founders of the Schoenfeld /Brasel settlement located 50 kilometers north of the Molotchna.¹⁷ Upon the death of the parents Peter and his wife inherited the entire estate of the parents which was reported to have been considerable. The family remained in Russia during the Revolution and went through many tragic circumstances.

Section Five: Peter Heidebrecht Family

2 Son Peter Heidebrecht was married for the first time to Catarina whose surname is not known. The couple had a daughter Agatha who died on October 4, 1912. On May 11, 1913, Peter Heidebrecht married for the second time to Helena Friesen, daughter of Isaac Friesen resident in Wickbacht No 20 in Muensterberg one of the villages where the infant Kleine Gemeinde reform movement held its worship services during the early years 19

The information as to the children of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. has been obtained from a letter of April 5, 1911, in the Mennonitische Rundschau written by Peter Rogalsky the grandson of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. This letter was discovered through the research of Steinbach historian and teacher, Henry Fast. It is not possible to rank the children according to age as only the birth date of son Peter is known at this time.

1 Son Peter Heidebrecht married Aganetha Fast in 1846 in Blumstein. In 1868 they moved to Markuslandt near Einlage but after one year they moved on to Borosenko where they purchased 400 desjatien of land. In 1874 they emigrated to Jansen, Nebraska, where they purchased 1200 acres of land. Like most other Heidebrechts associated with the Kleine Gemeinde they were quite well-to do. The Peter Heidebrechts remained in the Kleine Gemeinde church all their lives. Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) was a cousin to Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf, Melitochna, 19

Son-in-law Johan P. Thiessen was a successful businessman and Nebraska State Senator. Son-in-law Abraham F. Thiessen was the famous advocate of the landless Mennonites in the Melitschen Colony, South Russia. For additional information on the family of Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) see: Henry Fast, "The Kleine Gemeinde in the United States of America". 20 The list of children is not necessarily complete. 21

4 The Gerhard Heidebrecht family was resident in Lichtenau, Molotchna, in 1876. It appears that his older brother Peter moved to Blumstein when he married and therefore it is possible that Gerhard took over his fathers' Wirtschaft in Lichtenau. In a letter of February 25, 1876, to his former neighbour Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1816-1894), who was about the same age, he relates that he has 9 horses and 5 head of cattle 4 of which are milk cows and that he wants to slaughter 6 pigs that fall. In the letter of Peter Rogalsky above referred to Mrs Gerhard Heidebrecht was still alive in 1911. It is also indicated that son Peter Heidebrecht was resident in Lindenort and son Gerhard Heidebrecht in Pretoria.

Thiessen of Jansen Nebraska, in Die Mennonitische Rundschau of March 26, 1904, in which he mentions "that he visited Jakob Weidebrecht on the Brasel settlement as he had been instructed to do by his brother, presumably Peter Weidebrecht (1815-1896) of Jansen, Nebraska. Section Six: Conclusion

The above is a tentative compilation of the information presently available to the writer with respect to the Kleine Gemeinde Weidebrecht family. Anyone with additional information or corrections is asked to contact Delbert F. Plett, Box 1960, Steinbach, Manitoba, R0A 2A0. The present intention is to publish this family sketch in Pioneers and Pilgrims, Volume Five of the Mennonite Kleine Gemeinde Historical Series.

Mr. Thiessen has researched the Prussian Mennonite Church Records and concluded that all Peter Heidebrecht, died 1770, is the forebear of all the Mennonite Heidebrechts. Letter to the author December 11, 1987. See also Hermann Thiessen, "Bericht ueber meine Familienforschung Heidebrecht", Unpublished paper, 5 pages.
2. Edward Brandt has identified two other possible Heidebrecht families with Kleine Gemeinde connections, also descended from Peter Heidebrecht who died in Prussia, in 1770. Firstly, Justina W. Heidebrecht (born ca. 1794) the daughter of Cornelius Heidebrecht (born ca. 1764) and Maria Warkentin (born 1764) who settled on Wirtschaft No. 10 in Muntau in 1804. She apparently married Johan Bergen (born 1787) son of Elias von Beergen (born 1742) whose widow nee Gertruda Regehr settled on Wirtschaft No. 5 in Schoensee in 1805. According to Mr. Brandt it was their daughter Justina Bergen (1812-1840) who was the first wife of Kleine Gemeinde school teacher Cornelius F. Fritzen (1810-1892). Secondly, the mother of Peter H. Unger, nee Heidebrecht. See Edward Brandt, "Brandt Roots (1605-1990)", 12-27th Ave, Minneapolis, Mn., 55414, 62 pages. See also Profile, 26-27, and 210. 12. Courtesy of Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba. This information was critical in determining that Cornelius Heidebrecht (born 1909) and Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf were one and the same person. Henry Fast had earlier found the information that Peter Heidebrecht (1915-1996) was the son of a Peter Heidebrecht. The only possible parents, according to the research of Herman Thiesen was Peter Heidebrecht, youngest son of Jakob Heidebrecht whose widow settled in Lichtenau in 1904. Letter to the author of Hermann Thiesen August 19, 1988. This view is shared by Milton Harms. Letter to the author May 26, 1988. Since Cornelius Heidebrecht, Nikolaidorf, was a cousin to Peter Heidebrecht (1915-1996) it was logical to assume that he was Cornelius Heidebrecht (born 1909) the son of Cornelius Heidebrecht of Lichtenau.

13. It appears that Cornelius Heidebrecht son of Cornelius Heidebrecht (born 1909) may have married the daughter of Heinrich Warkentin (1798-1891). See "Martin Warkentin 1764 Genealogy" of Section Five. In a letter of 1990 Jakob Willes reports that Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf had also been at a wedding. He mentions that the older Heidebrechts are quite sickly and weak. Apparently Heidebrecht had been in the Crimea for 3 days where his son Peter was serving in the Eerste in the vineyards and had toured the south coast.
